On December 10, 2021 at approximately 1518 hours I met with Lisa Haba to discuss recent excessive emails sent by Jonathan Baram.

Haba is an attorney who filed a lawsuit against Baram and his company in 2020 for violating the Trafficking Victims Protection Act. After the case against him was dismissed, Baram continued to send emails to Haba and her associates with no legitimate purpose. I read two of the most recent emails she received, mainly ranting about how unprofessional she is and bragging about avoiding criminal charges. No direct threats were mentioned but Haba thought it was odd how Baram mentioned she should stop "decorating [her] home in Florida." Because she displayed holiday decorations recently, Haba is concerned about Baram potentially stalking her.

Since the lawsuit began, Haba and her co-counsel have received more than 200 emails from Baram with aggressive comments and abusive speech. She contacted law enforcement to document the harassing emails, but thought she did not have sufficient evidence to pursue criminal charges. Haba plans on petitioning for an injunction against Baram if his behavior continues. Haba completed a sworn written statement attesting to the aforementioned facts. I provided her with my business card and case number for documentation purposes.

I received a follow-up email from Haba stating she received over 200 emails from Baram after sending him a Cease and Desist notice on January 27, 2022. The documentation she provided via email is attached to this report in Case Documents.
